 10 at the end the following new chapter:

11       “CHAPTER 4—PROHIBITING TAXPAYER-12       FUNDED GENDER REASSIGNMENT
13       MEDICAL INTERVENTIONS*****

- “301. Prohibition on funding for gender reassignment medical interventions.
- “302. Prohibition on funding for health benefits plans that cover gender reassignment medical interventions.
- “303. Limitation on Federal facilities and employees.
- “304. Construction relating to separate coverage.
- “305. Construction relating to the use of non-Federal funds for health coverage.
- “306. Construction relating to complications arising from gender reassignment medical interventions.
- “307. Treatment of individuals born with medically verifiable disorder of sex development.
- “308. Gender reassignment medical intervention defined.

1     “§ 301. Prohibition on funding for gender reassign-
2                 ment medical interventions

3         “No funds authorized or appropriated by Federal 4 law, and none of the funds in any trust fund to which 5 funds are authorized or appropriated by Federal law, shall 6 be expended for any gender reassignment medical inter-7 vention.

8     “§ 302. Prohibition on funding for health benefits
9                 plans that cover gender reassignment
10                 medical interventions

11         “No funds authorized or appropriated by Federal 12 law, and none of the funds in any trust fund to which 13 funds are authorized or appropriated by Federal law, shall 14 be expended for health benefits coverage that includes cov-15 erage of gender reassignment medical interventions.

16     “§ 303. Limitation on Federal facilities and employees

17         “No health care service furnished—

18                 “(1) by or in a health care facility owned or op-19 erated by the Federal Government; or 20                 “(2) by any physician or other individual em-21 ployed by the Federal Government to provide health 22 care services within the scope of the physician’s or 23 individual’s employment,

24 may include gender reassignment medical interventions.

1     “§ 304. Construction relating to separate coverage”

2         “Nothing in this chapter shall be construed as pro-3 hibiting any individual, entity, or State or locality from 4 purchasing separate coverage for gender reassignment 5 medical interventions or health benefits coverage that in-6 cludes gender reassignment medical interventions so long 7 as such coverage is paid for entirely using only funds not 8 authorized or appropriated by Federal law and such cov-9 erage shall not be purchased using matching funds re-10 quired for a federally subsidized program, including a 11 State’s or locality’s contribution of Medicaid matching 12 funds.

13     “§ 305. Construction relating to the use of non-Fed-14 eral funds for health coverage”

15         “Nothing in this chapter shall be construed as re-16 stricting the ability of any non-Federal health benefits cov-17 erage provider from offering coverage for gender reassig-18 nment medical interventions, or the ability of a State or 19 locality to contract separately with such a provider for 20 such coverage, so long as only funds not authorized or ap-21 propriated by Federal law are used and such coverage 22 shall not be purchased using matching funds required for 23 a federally subsidized program, including a State’s or lo-24 cality’s contribution of Medicaid matching funds.

1     “§ 306. Construction relating to complications arising 2                 from gender reassignment medical inter- 3                 ventions”

4         “Nothing in this chapter shall be construed to apply 5     to the treatment of any infection, injury, disease, or dis-6     order that has been caused by or exacerbated by the per-7     formance of a gender reassignment medical intervention.
8     This rule of construction shall be applicable without re-9     gard to whether the gender reassignment medical inter-10  vention was performed in accord with Federal or State 11  law, and without regard to whether funding for the gender 12  reassignment medical intervention is permissible under 13  section 307.

14     “§ 307. Treatment of individuals born with medically 15                 verifiable disorder of sex development”

16         “The limitations established in sections 301, 302, 17  and 303 shall not apply with respect to the following indi-18  viduals:

19                 “(1) An individual with external biological sex 20  characteristics that are irresolvably ambiguous, such 21  as those born with 46 XX chromosomes with viriliza-22  tion, 46 XY chromosomes with undervirilization, or 23  having both ovarian and testicular tissue.

24                 “(2) An individual with respect to whom a phy-25  sician has determined through genetic or biochemical 26  testing that the individual does not have normal sex

1       chromosome structure, sex steroid hormone produc-
2       tion, or sex steroid hormone action for a biological 3       male or female.

4       “§ 308. Gender reassignment medical intervention de-

5                   fined

6        “For purposes of this chapter, the term ‘gender reas-7       signment medical intervention’ means—

8               “(1) performing a surgery that sterilizes an in-9       dividual, including castration, vasectomy, hysterectomy, 10      oophorectomy, metoidioplasty, penectomy, phal-11      loplasty, and vaginoplasty, to change the body of 12      such individual to correspond to a sex that is dis-13      cordant with biological sex;

14               “(2) performing a mastectomy on an individual 15      for the purpose described in paragraph (1); and 16               “(3) administering or supplying to an individual 17      medications for the purpose described in paragraph 18      (1), including—

19               “(A) GnRH agonists or other puberty-20      blocking drugs to stop or delay normal puberty;

21               “(B) testosterone or other androgens to bi-22      ological females at doses that are supraphysio-23      logic to the female sex; and 24               “(C) estrogen to biological males at doses 25      that are supraphysiologic to the male sex.”.

1   SEC. 102. AMENDMENT TO TABLE OF CHAPTERS.

2       The table of chapters for title 1, United States Code, 3   is amended by adding at the end the following new item:

“4. Prohibiting taxpayer-funded gender reassignment medical interventions ..... 301”.

4   TITLE II—APPLICATION UNDER 5   THE AFFORDABLE CARE ACT

6   SEC. 201. CLARIFYING APPLICATION OF PROHIBITION TO 7                   PREMIUM CREDITS AND COST-SHARING RE-8                   DUCTIONS UNDER ACA.

9       (a) IN GENERAL.—

10       (1) DISALLOWANCE OF REFUNDABLE CREDIT
11       AND COST-SHARING REDUCTIONS FOR COVERAGE 12       UNDER QUALIFIED HEALTH PLAN WHICH PROVIDES 13       COVERAGE FOR GENDER REASSIGNMENT MEDICAL 14       INTERVENTIONS.—

15       (A) IN GENERAL.—Subparagraph (A) of 16       section 36B(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code 17       of 1986 is amended by inserting before the pe-18       riod at the end the following: “or any health 19       plan that includes coverage for gender reassi-20       gnment medical interventions (other than any 21       gender reassignment medical intervention or 22       treatment described in section 306 or 307 of 23       title 1, United States Code)”.

(B) OPTION TO PURCHASE OR OFFER SEPARATE COVERAGE OR PLAN.—Paragraph (3) of section 36B(c) of such Code is amended by adding at the end the following new subparagraph:

6               “(C) SEPARATE COVERAGE OR PLAN FOR 7               GENDER REASSIGNMENT MEDICAL INTERVEN-
8               TIONS ALLOWED.—

9                             “(i) OPTION TO PURCHASE SEPARATE
10                             COVERAGE OR PLAN.—Nothing in subparagraph
11                             (A) shall be construed as prohibiting 12                             any individual from purchasing separate 13                             coverage for gender reassignment medical 14                             interventions described in such subparagraph, 15                             or a health plan that includes such 16                             gender reassignment medical interventions, 17                             so long as no credit is allowed under this 18                             section with respect to the premiums for 19                             such coverage or plan.

“(ii) OPTION TO OFFER COVERAGE OR PLAN.—Nothing in subparagraph (A) shall restrict any non-Federal health insurance issuer offering a health plan from offering separate coverage for gender reassignment
medical interventions described in such

1                   subparagraph, or a plan that includes such
2                   gender reassignment medical interventions,
3                   so long as premiums for such separate cov-4                   erage or plan are not paid for with any 5                   amount attributable to the credit allowed 6                   under this section (or the amount of any 7                   advance payment of the credit under sec-8                   tion 1412 of the Patient Protection and 9                   Affordable Care Act).”.

10                 (2) DISALLOWANCE OF SMALL EMPLOYER
11                 HEALTH INSURANCE EXPENSE CREDIT FOR PLAN
12                 WHICH INCLUDES COVERAGE FOR GENDER REAS-13                 SIGNMENT MEDICAL INTERVENTIONS.—Subsection 14                 (h) of section 45R of the Internal Revenue Code of 15                 1986 is amended—

16                 (A) by striking “Any term” and inserting 17                 the following:

18                 “(1) IN GENERAL.—Any term”; and 19                 (B) by adding at the end the following new 20                 paragraph:

21                 “(2) EXCLUSION OF HEALTH PLANS INCLUDING 22                 COVERAGE FOR GENDER REASSIGNMENT MEDICAL
23                 INTERVENTIONS.—

24                 “(A) IN GENERAL.—The term ‘qualified 25                 health plan’ does not include any health plan

1       that includes coverage for gender reassignment
2       medical interventions (other than any gender 3       reassignment medical intervention or treatment 4       described in section 306 or 307 of title 1, 5       United States Code).

6                 “(B) SEPARATE COVERAGE OR PLAN FOR 7                 GENDER REASSIGNMENT MEDICAL INTERVEN-
8                 TIONS ALLOWED.—

9                     “(i) OPTION TO PURCHASE SEPARATE
10                 COVERAGE OR PLAN.—Nothing in subparagraph
11                 (A) shall be construed as prohibiting 12                 any employer from purchasing for its em-13                 ployees separate coverage for gender reas-14                 signment medical interventions described 15                 in such subparagraph, or a health plan 16                 that includes such gender reassignment
17                 medical interventions, so long as no credit 18                 is allowed under this section with respect 19                 to the employer contributions for such cov-20                 erage or plan.

21                     “(ii) OPTION TO OFFER COVERAGE OR 22                 PLAN.—Nothing in subparagraph (A) shall
23                 restrict any non-Federal health insurance
24                 issuer offering a health plan from offering
25                 separate coverage for gender reassignment

1           medical interventions described in such
2           subparagraph, or a plan that includes such
3           gender reassignment medical interventions,
4           so long as such separate coverage or plan 5           is not paid for with any employer contribu-6           tion eligible for the credit allowed under 7           this section.”.

8       (b) APPLICATION TO MULTI-STATE PLANS.—Section 9 1334(a) of Public Law 111–148 (42 U.S.C. 18054(a)) is 10 amended by adding at the end the following new para-11 graph:

12           “(7) COVERAGE CONSISTENT WITH FEDERAL 13           POLICY REGARDING GENDER REASSIGNMENT MED-
14           ICAL INTERVENTIONS.—In entering into contracts 15           under this subsection, the Director shall ensure that 16           no multi-State qualified health plan offered in an 17           Exchange provides health benefits coverage for 18           which the expenditure of Federal funds is prohibited 19           under chapter 4 of title 1, United States Code.”.

20       (c) EFFECTIVE DATE.—The amendments made by 21 subsection (a) shall apply to taxable years ending after 22 the date that is one year after the date of enactment of 23 this Act, but only with respect to plan years beginning

1 after such date, and the amendment made by subsection 2 (b) shall apply to plan years beginning after such date.
